ADAMS COUNTY
HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Your history is our history

ABOUT THE SOCIETY

Incorporated in 1940 but with origins dating to the 1880s, the ACHS houses over one million documents, photographs, and historic artifacts significant to the nearly 300-year story of one of America's most fascinating communities.

The ACHS offers 27 hours of research services per week. Additionally, the Society presents free monthly programs, walking tours, special events, exhibits, and publishes an annual local history journal.

"History was made here in quiet lives, on farm and village streets."

OUR HOLDINGS

FAMILY HISTORY AND PROPERTY RESEARCH

Our members enjoy free access to thousands of genealogical and land-related records dating back to the 1700s. These include published and unpublished family histories, family files, local newspapers and abstracts, original deed books, yearly tax ledgers, wills and estate files, private collections, and thousands of original photographs.

LOCAL HISTORY AND THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG

We welcome research on any local history topic, from schools to churches, businesses, and organizations. For those interested in the Battle of Gettysburg, ACHS also houses the Battle of Gettysburg Research Center where you can research any aspect of the Gettysburg Campaign.
